This amazing piece of Ipswich History is available to rent. This unique property will need to be viewed to experience all its charm.

"Yarrum Lodge" or also known as "Bailey's Lodge" was known as the "Cobb and Co" stop off.

The home has undergone renovations in the last few years to give you modern appliances and fixtures but the home still envelopes you with all of its character and warmth!

Walk in the front door to the beautiful lounge area complete with the working open fire place and stunning brick work which is said to have been locally hand-made.

Off the lounge area is the spacious master bedroom which features a wall of storage and a/c. A second bedroom also offers great storage and would make an amazing office.

The kitchen has been tastefully renovated and boasts beautiful stone bench tops and plenty of cupboard and
