5 Fowler Court KENSINGTON GROVE QLD

6 4 4

This enormous Dixon home built in 2008 is set on a 5,571sqm allotment at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac with generous setback from the road. There is plenty on offer both inside and out and a self-contained teenagers' retreat offers additional space for those older children.

There are a total of five bedrooms in the main dwelling, all of which are carpeted and come with ceiling fans and built-in wardrobes except for the master which features a private bathroom and a walk-in wardrobe. All four remaining bedrooms are ensuited across two two-way bathrooms, and a powder room located near the living area takes care of guests.

The open planned family and dining rooms feature a wood fireplace and overlook the expansive rear yard. Nearby you will find the kitchen, which is well-equipped with electric
