

113 Lairhopes Road EBENEZER QLD

Coming in at just over 131 acres, this enormous property could be utilized in a number of ways. Will you run stock and make use of the sizable dam, or simply finish the partially-constructed two-bedroom cottage and make use of the machinery shed already in place to enjoy the lifestyle? With a steel frame and stumps currently in place, the cottage requires only a little more work to turn it into a home. From here you could enjoy the panoramic views of this incredible offering and the surrounding countryside.

This is all located just a short drive from the town centre of Rosewood, where you will find Primary and High Schools for the kids, along with an array of shops, parks and activities. Ipswich CBD is located a bit further, and here you will find all of the retail and entertainment options that the fastest-growing city in Queensland has to offer.
