This property really is a surprise package and offers so much more than you would expect.

The home has been very well maintained throughout, and sits proudly on an elevated 857 m2 fully fenced block. This property is beautifully presented with manicured gardens and matured bushes and shrubs in the backyard maximizing the privacy.

Entering the home you first step into the huge formal lounge which adjoins the air conditioned formal dining room. From here you enter the kitchen where you will be impressed by the amount of cupboard and bench space the home has to offer. Off the kitchen is a bedroom which is tiled and would also make an ideal study or craft room.

The air-conditioned master bedroom is also located toward the front of the home is large enough to house a king sized bedroom suite and features an ensuite and 2 built-in robes. Heading down the hall, you enter the second spacious
