To say that I was pleasantly surprised when I finally got to see this treasure, was an understatement. Covering two levels of family living and entertainment, it is perfect for entertaining, relaxing, or just bringing the family together. The home is positioned in a quiet cul-de-sac with fantastic elevation allowing the beautiful breezes to come through the home and cool the upstairs living spaces in the warmer months. Downstairs offers living space with own entrance, double car lock up plus workshop area which leads directly out to the spacious and family friendly backyard. There is room for a swing set, a dog and even a pool. With a little more cosmetic work to be done by the new owner, you will have
