

11 Trumpy Street Silkstone QLD

4 1 1

This solid home with hardwood frame and floors is a great opportunity for a first homeowner, a couple starting out or the savvy investor.

A paved walkway leads you to the tiled porch at the front of the home which makes for a lovely sitting area to catch the morning sun with a cuppa. Entering the home you will be impressed by the polished timber floors of the open style lounge & dining room that continues right through to the kitchen and bedrooms.

The kitchen is fresh, finished with stylish white cupboards and black laminate benchtops and features a single door pantry, stainless steel oven and ceramic cook top and central island bench - giving you extra cupboard space and a breakfast bar as well.
