REAL ESTATE

9 Piping Court RACEVIEW QLD

5 2 6

The quality and features of this home is a rare find and will not last.

Walking through the spacious and inviting entry it leads into a main bedroom that looks like it has just come out of a catalogue in the homes magazine- stunning!! It is oversized and beautifully presented, ceiling fan, crimsafe screens with generous windows to let the summer breeze blow in. Walk in robe with massive storage space and the ensuite to die for. The shower is double sized so plenty of room for all sizes and if you like to shower together, double basin and hidden toilet.

The main lounge area is tiled with a large air conditioner to keep the whole area cool and is always serviced once a year to ensure it is working to its maximum. Co-ordinated with a hint of style and sophistication this house has been beautifully planned for functionality and maximizing the space allowing for family living.
