The owners of this dual-occupancy property in the highly sought-after suburb of Pine Mountain are reluctantly moving on after 18 years and offering their property to market for the very first time. Properties in this tightly-held community seldom come to market, so this is an extremely rare offering.

Situated on a neat and tidy, private 2.5 acre fully fenced block, this property will fit all your needs, with multiple sheds, huge dam and established trees and gardens.

Featuring 2 dwellings; an immaculate 4 bedroom family home that has been renovated and modernised and a dual occupancy (approved by ICC), separate from the main house, bring your parents, house your teen or use as a children's retreat or personal studio. The possibilities are endless.
