Stepping through the front door you enter the sunroom. This can be used as a mud room allowing space to take off your shoes, hang up your coat and umbrella before entering your home. Moving through to the large air-conditioned lounge/dining room, you are greeted by gorgeous stained timber fretwork and 10-foot-high ceilings. Giving you a feeling that the home is much bigger than expected.

The large originally designed kitchen offers great bench and cupboard space above and below, large pantry, electric stove and oven as well as an additional air-conditioner.

The two oversized bedrooms (the master also has its own air-conditioner) plus a sleep-out. Continue to offer plenty of space. All rooms are service by the main bathroom, which features a single vanity, shower over the bath and a
