The home has been freshly painted internally but put your own touch to the home and increase the value. The gorgeous home sits on a 698 square metre fully fenced block. There are heaps of surprises with this one that aren't visible from the front of the home.

Stepping inside you will be surprised to notice two large air conditioned living areas. Flowing through from the lounge area you will see that there is a separate room that the present owner is using as an office. The kitchen of the home is original and has an eat in dining area. It boasts a
