Be quick to inspect this one as this feature packed property won't last long.

Built in 1988, this rendered mediterranean style home sits on a 600 m2 block and consists of 3 bedrooms all with ceiling fans, large lounge and separate dining off the kitchen. Upon entering the property, you will find a huge covered entertainment area and deck and with the additional space of the single car accommodation adjoining this area it can hold the largest of family gatherings. The block is fully fenced and has side access to a powered double shed giving you a total of 3 car lock up accommodation. There is a separate studio which could be a craft room, office, or as it is currently being used for a gym. Located in close proximity to local schools, shops and only minutes to highway access, this one is sure to be snapped up quickly.
